PREFACE.

It is a matter of regret that all intelligent families of America do not make a permanent record of their ancestors and living relatives. Some have a few genealogical notes tucked away in places where they can rarely be found when wanted and which eventually find their way to the furnace or some unknown place. But the majority know little and care less about their family history.

A full and accurate family record placed in all of our public libraries would be of great value a hundred years hence and if such a record is not made NOW it will then be unobtainable. What a blessing it would have been if one or two centuries ago our ancestors had made and preserved a full and accurate family history! What a blessing it will be to our descendants of one or two centuries to come if we do this now!

Why can not every family select as its official genealogist some member with spare time and interest in the work and who by a study of various Court and Church records and by correspondence with distant cousins might compile and publish such a family record?

An elaborate volume with portraits and colored coats of arms may serve to impress a few readers but such a book is expensive and unnecessary. Type written or printed family sheets, bound in a loose-leaf octavo pamphlet with a flexible cover, would cost but little and being acceptable to all public libraries would serve the main purpose of perpetuating the family history.

Whoever is able to make additions or corrections to this family record is earnestly requested to send such to the compiler.

George Henry Fox, M.D.
145 East 54th St.
New York, N.Y.

NOTE I.

is convenient for reference as it shows at a glance the various lines of descent and enables one to find any adult son. The sons who died young are omitted as are also the daughters all of whom will be found in the family sheets.

NOTE II.

THE FAMILY NUMBERING

is unusual but very convenient. If ---- ---- e.g. is numbered 1 3 5 it shows that he is in the third generation and is the fifth son of the third son of the first American ancestor as far as known. Omitting one or two right hand figures gives the number of his father or grandfather.

The daughters are lettered A B C etc.

OTES:
1640 Member of Concord Church.
Lived near "Great Swamp" north of church on road to Billerica

John Ball Jr. Tailor of Watertown & Lancaster
m 1643 (1) Elizabeth Pierce. Children (4).
676 John, Elizabeth & son Joseph 1669-1676 were killed by Indians.

711 Hannah claimed £4.25s compensation for loss in Witchcraft trial in 1692.

Thomas Fox of Concord was made a freeman in 1644 and was therefore born as early as 1623 for it was not until 1645 that a man under twenty-one years of age could be made a freeman. It is probable that he was born about 1619 and that he married his first wife Rebecca about 1641. He appears to have been a man who stood well among his neighbors and was evidently educated above the average. Although "feeble and weak in body" he signed his will with his own hand, his name being neat and legible. His descendents may be congratulated that their first ancestor in America did not have to make his X mark.

The coat-of-arms impressed on the seal of his will is entirely unlike that of the Rev. John Foxe, the martyrologist, is whom some have claimed to have been his ancestor. The arms on the will seem identical with those of the family of the Rev. Peter Bulkeley with whom he was evidently in close friendship and as The Rev. Edward Bulkeley signed the will as a witness and not unlikely drew the will itself, as was the custom of many of the early clergy, it is probable that he used his own seal.

The will, dated 1658, now in Middlesex Co. office made his wife Hannah executrix. She and her young sons Thomas, Samuel & John moved to New London, Ct. where she became the third wife of Andrew Lester and had three sons by him, Timothy 1662, Joseph 1664 and Benjamin Lester 1666 (half-brothers of the children of Thomas Fox of Concord) and later married a third husband. (See "Thomas Fox and his Descendants" by William F. Fox with preface by Simeon M. Fox.

David was a soldier in the Phipps Expedition to Quebec and probably never went to New London. Isaac moved there from Medford after 1695. That the son Thomas died young is conjecture. He and his sister Hannah were certainly in New London in 1662 as is shown by County Court records. He may have gone to Newport where a Thomas Fox lived or have been one of the unidentified Thomas Foxes of Boston.

As the first Thomas Fox was a brother-in-law of Moses Wheate it is very likely that his first wife was Rebecca Wheate. Possibly she was a sister of Wheate's wife Tamasin. He probably married her in England but possibly a sister Rebecca of Moses Wheate came with his family and married Thomas Fox in Concord.

It should be noted that there were two men named Thomas Fox who lived in Concord soon after its settlement.

The elder one of these, as is shown by various Court records, came from England to America in one of the vessels of Gov. Winthrop's fleet in 1630. He was one of Gov. Cradock's men and probably settled on the Mystic river near where Medford now stands and where Gov. Winthrop located the Cradock grant. Gov. Cradock never came to America but sent over a colony of servants. It seems quite certain that this was the Thomas Fox, b c1608, who later moved to Cambridge and is known as "Thomas Fox of Cambridge" in distinction from the younger "Thomas Fox of Concord". He was made a freeman in 1638. The Cambridge Church records state that his son Jabez had been baptized at Concord. He evidently had an unidentified wife there and after removal to Cambridge married (2) Ellen, widow of Percival Green.

Each of these men named Thomas Fox, as well as Richard Fox of Glastonbury, Ct. has a distinct line of widely scattered descendants. They may possibly have been related to each other but proof of this is lacking.

PREFACE.

It is a matter of regret that all intelligent families of America do not make a permanent record of their ancestors and living relatives. Some have a few genealogical notes tucked away in places where they can rarely be found when wanted and which eventually find their way to the furnace or some unknown place. But the majority know little and care less about their family history.

A full and accurate family record placed in all of our public libraries would be of great value a hundred years hence and if such a record is not made NOW it will then be unobtainable. What a blessing it would have been if one or two centuries ago our ancestors had made and preserved a full and accurate family history! What a blessing it will be to our descendants of one or two centuries to come if we do this now!

Why can not every family select as its official genealogist some member with spare time and interest in the work and who by a study of various Court and Church records and by correspondence with distant cousins might compile and publish such a family record?

An elaborate volume with portraits and colored coats of arms may serve to impress a few readers but such a book is expensive and unnecessary. Type written or printed family sheets, bound in a loose-leaf octavo pamphlet with a flexible cover, would cost but little and being acceptable to all public libraries would serve the main purpose of perpetuating the family history.

Whoever is able to make additions or corrections to this family record is earnestly requested to send such to the compiler.

George Henry Fox, M.D.
145 East 54th St.
New York, N.Y.

NOTE I.

is convenient for reference as it shows at a glance the various lines of descent and enables one to find any adult son. The sons who died young are omitted as are also the daughters all of whom will be found in the family sheets.

NOTE II.

THE FAMILY NUMBERING

is unusual but very convenient. If ---- ---- e.g. is numbered 1 3 5 it shows that he is in the third generation and is the fifth son of the third son of the first American ancestor as far as known. Omitting one or two right hand figures gives the number of his father or grandfather.

The daughters are lettered A B C etc.

NOTES:
1640 Member of Concord Church.
Lived near "Great Swamp" north of church on road to Billerica

John Ball Jr. Tailor of Watertown & Lancaster
m 1643 (1) Elizabeth Pierce. Children (4).
1676 John, Elizabeth & son Joseph 1669-1671 were killed by Indians.

1711 Hannah claimed £4.25s compensation for loss in Witchcraft trial in 1692.

Thomas Fox of Concord was made a freeman in 1644 and was therefore born as early as 1623 for it was not until 1645 that a man under twenty-one years of age could be made a freeman. It is probable that he was born about 1619 and that he married his first wife Rebecca about 1641. He appears to have been a man who stood well among his neighbors and was evidently educated above the average. Although "feeble and weak in body" he signed his will with his own hand, his name being neat and legible. His descendents may be congratulated that their first ancestor in America did not have to make his X mark.

The coat-of-arms impressed on the seal of his will is entirely unlike that of the Rev. John Foxe, the martyrologist, is whom some have claimed to have been his ancestor. The arms on the will seem identical with those of the family of the Rev. Peter Bulkeley with whom he was evidently in close friendship and as The Rev. Edward Bulkeley signed the will as a witness and not unlikely drew the will itself, as was the custom of many of the early clergy, it is probable that he used his own seal.

The will, dated 1658, now in Middlesex Co. office made his wife Hannah executrix. She and her young sons Thomas, Samuel & John moved to New London, Ct. where she became the third wife of Andrew Lester and had three sons by him, Timothy 1662, Joseph 1664 and Benjamin Lester 1666 (half-brothers of the children of Thomas Fox of Concord) and later married a third husband. (See "Thomas Fox and his Descendants" by William F. Fox with preface by Simeon M. Fox.

David was a soldier in the Phipps Expedition to Quebec and probably never went to New London. Isaac moved there from Medford after 1695. That the son Thomas died young is conjecture. He and his sister Hannah were certainly in New London in 1662 as is shown by County Court records. He may have gone to Newport where a Thomas Fox lived or have been one of the unidentified Thomas Foxes of Boston.

As the first Thomas Fox was a brother-in-law of Moses Wheate it is very likely that his first wife was Rebecca Wheate. Possibly she was a sister of Wheate's wife Tamasin. He probably married her in England but possibly a sister Rebecca of Moses Wheate came with his family and married Thomas Fox in Concord.

Thomas Fox of Concord was made a Freeman in 1644 and was [p]robably there as early as 1640 [illegible]. If the next record [illegible] that he was twenty-one years of age, would he make a freeman [illegible] [p]robable that he was born about 1619 and that he married his [fir]st wife, Rebecca, about 1645. He appears to have been a man who [st]ood well among his neighbors and was [illegible] selected [illegible] [illegible]. Although Thomas had [illegible] in "Holy" and signed his [will] with his own mark, his name being used and [illegible]. His [illegible] may be [illegible] that about [illegible] in [his] will [illegible] each his 3 [illegible].

The coat-of-arms [illegible] of the head of his will is [illegible] that of the Rev. John Fox, the martyrologist, [illegible] have been claimed to have been his ancestors. The arms [illegible] with those [illegible] with those of the family of the Rev. [illegible] with whom he was evidently in close [illegible] [illegible] at the Rev. [illegible] signed the will as a witness [illegible] [illegible] the will [illegible] the custom of some [illegible], it is probable that he used his own seal.

The will, dated 1682, was [illegible] 1, [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Hannah [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and had three sons by her, Timothy 1682, [illegible] 1684 and Benjamin [illegible] 1686 [illegible] of the [illegible] of Thomas Fox of Concord and [illegible] a third [illegible] (See "Thomas Fox and his Descendants" by William [illegible] [illegible] by [illegible] [illegible].

[illegible] was a soldier in the [illegible] [illegible] in [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] in New England. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] after 1640. That the Mr. Thomas Fox [illegible] is [illegible], he and his [illegible] Hannah were certainly in [illegible] 1662 as is shown by County Court records. He may have come [illegible] [illegible] where a Thomas Fox lived at [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible] Thomas [illegible] of [illegible].

As the [illegible] of Thomas Fox was a [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] it is more likely that his [illegible] with the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] was a [illegible] of [illegible] wife Hannah [illegible] probably married [illegible] in England and possibly a [illegible] [illegible] of [illegible] [illegible] with his family and married [illegible] his in [illegible].

It should be noted that there were two men named Thomas Fox who lived in Concord soon after its settlement.

The elder one of these, as is shown by various Court records, came from England to America in one of the vessels of Gov. Winthrop's fleet in 1630. He was one of Gov. Cradock's men and probably settled on the Mystic river near where Medford now stands and where Gov. Winthrop located the Cradock grant. Gov. Cradock never came to America but sent over a colony of servants. It seems quite certain that this was the Thomas Fox, c1608, who later moved to Cambridge and is known as "Thomas Fox of Cambridge" in distinction from the younger "Thomas Fox of Concord". He was made a freeman in 1638. The Cambridge Church records state that his son Jabez had been baptized at Concord. He evidently had an unidentified wife there and after removal to Cambridge married (2) Ellen, widow of Percival Green.

Each of these men named Thomas Fox, as well as Richard Fox of Glastonbury, Ct. has a distinct line of widely scattered descendants. They may possibly have been related to each other but proof of this is lacking.

PREFACE.

It is a matter of regret that all intelligent families of merica do not make a permanent record of their ancestors and iving relatives. Some have a few genealogical notes tucked way in places where they can rarely be found when wanted and hich eventually find their way to the furnace or some unknown lace. But the majority know little and care less about their amily history.

A full and accurate family record placed in all of our ublic libraries would be of great value a hundred years hence nd if such a record is not made NOW it will then be unob- ainable. What a blessing it would have been if one or two enturies ago our ancestors had made and preserved a full and ccurate family history! What a blessing it will be to our escendants of one or two centuries to come if we do this now!

Why can not every family select as its official genealo- ist some member with spare time and interest in the work nd who by a study of various Court and Church records and y correspondence with distant cousins might compile and ublish such a family record?

An elaborate volume with portraits and colored coats of rms may serve to impress a few readers but such a book is xpensive and unnecessary. Type written or printed family heets, bound in a loose-leaf octavo pamphlet with a flexi- le cover, would cost but little and being acceptable to ll public libraries would serve the main purpose of per- etuating the family history.

Whoever is able to make additions or corrections to his family record is earnestly requested to send such to he compiler.

George Henry Fox, M.D.
145 East 54th St.
New York, N.Y.

NOTE I.

is convenient for reference as it shows at a glance the various lines of descent and enables one to find any adult son. The sons who died young are omitted as are also the daughters all of whom will be found in the family sheets.

NOTE II.

THE FAMILY NUMBERING

is unusual but very convenient. If ---- ---- e.g. is numbered 1 3 5 it shows that he is in the third generation and is the fifth son of the third son of the first American ancestor as far as known. Omitting one or two right hand figures gives the number of his father or grandfather.

The daughters are lettered A B C etc.

Thomas Fox of Concord was made a freeman in 1644 and was herefore born as early as 1623 for it was not until 1645 that man under twenty-one years of age could be made a freeman. It s probable that he was born about 1619 and that he married his irst wife Rebecca about 1641. He appears to have been a man who tood well among his neighbors and was evidently educated above he average. Although "feeble and weak in body" he signed his ill with his own hand, his name being neat and legible. His lescendents may be congratulated that their first ancestor in merica did not have to make his X mark.

The coat-of-arms impressed on the seal of his will is ntirely unlike that of the Rev. John Foxe, the martyrologist, s whom some have claimed to have been his ancestor. The arms n the will seem identical with those of the family of the Rev. eter Bulkeley with whom he was evidently in close friendship nd as The Rev. Edward Bulkeley signed the will as a witness nd not unlikely drew the will itself, as was the custom of many f the early clergy, it is probable that he used his own seal.

The will, dated 1658, now in Middlesex Co. office made his ife Hannah executrix. She and her young sons Thomas, Samuel & ohn moved to New London, Ct. where she became the third wife f Andrew Lester and had three sons by him, Timothy 1662, oseph 1664 and Benjamin Lester 1666 (half-brothers of the hildren of Thomas Fox of Concord) and later married a third usband. (See "Thomas Fox and his Descendants" by William F. Fox ith preface by Simeon M. Fox.

David was a soldier in the Phipps Expedition to Quebec nd probably never went to New London. Isaac moved there from Medford after 1695. That the son Thomas died young is con-jecture. He and his sister Hannah were certainly in New London in 1662 as is shown by County Court records. He may have gone to Newport where a Thomas Fox lived or have been one of the unidentified Thomas Foxes of Boston.

As the first Thomas Fox was a brother-in-law of Moses Wheate it is very likely that his first wife was Rebecca Wheate. Possibly she was a sister of Wheate's wife Tamasin. He probably married her in England but possibly a sister Rebecca of Moses Wheate came with his family and married Thomas Fox in Concord.

It should be noted that there were two men named Thomas Fox who lived in Concord soon after its settlement.

The elder one of these, as is shown by various Court records, came from England to America in one of the vessels of Gov. Winthrop's fleet in 1630. He was one of Gov. Cradock's men and probably settled on the Mystic river near where Medford now stands and where Gov. Winthrop located the Cradock grant. Gov. Cradock never came to America but sent over a colony of servants. It seems quite certain that this was the Thomas Fox, b c1608, who later moved to Cambridge and is known as "Thomas Fox of Cambridge" in distinction from the younger "Thomas Fox of Concord". He was made a freeman in 1638. The Cambridge Church records state that his son Jabez had been baptized at Concord. He evidently had an unidentified wife there and after removal to Cambridge married (2) Ellen, widow of Percival Green.

Each of these men named Thomas Fox, as well as Richard Fox of Glastonbury, Ct. has a distinct line of widely scattered descendants. They may possibly have been related to each other but proof of this is lacking.

PREFACE.

It is a matter of regret that all intelligent families of America do not make a permanent record of their ancestors and living relatives. Some have a few genealogical notes tucked away in places where they can rarely be found when wanted and which eventually find their way to the furnace or some unknown place. But the majority know little and care less about their family history.

A full and accurate family record placed in all of our public libraries would be of great value a hundred years hence and if such a record is not made NOW it will then be unobtainable. What a blessing it would have been if one or two centuries ago our ancestors had made and preserved a full and accurate family history! What a blessing it will be to our descendants of one or two centuries to come if we do this now!

Why can not every family select as its official genealogist some member with spare time and interest in the work and who by a study of various Court and Church records and by correspondence with distant cousins might compile and publish such a family record?

An elaborate volume with portraits and colored coats of arms may serve to impress a few readers but such a book is expensive and unnecessary. Type written or printed family sheets, bound in a loose-leaf octavo pamphlet with a flexible cover, would cost but little and being acceptable to all public libraries would serve the main purpose of perpetuating the family history.

Whoever is able to make additions or corrections to this family record is earnestly requested to send such to the compiler.

George Henry Fox, M.D.
145 East 54th St.
New York, N.Y.

NOTE I.

s convenient for reference as it shows at a glance the arious lines of descent and enables one to find any adult on. The sons who died young are omitted as are also the aughters all of whom will be found in the family sheets.

NOTE II.

THE FAMILY NUMBERING

.s unusual but very convenient. If ---- ---- e.g. .s numbered 1 3 5 it shows that he is in the third generation and is the fifth son of the third son of the first American ancestor as far as known. Omitting one or two right hand figures gives the number of his father or grandfather.

The daughters are lettered A B C etc.

He appears to have been a man who tood well among his neighbors and was evidently educated above he average. Although "feeble and weak in body" he signed his ill with his own hand, his name being neat and legible. His escendents may be congratulated that their first ancestor in merica did not have to make his X mark.

The coat-of-arms impressed on the seal of his will is ntirely unlike that of the Rev. John Foxe, the martyrologist, s whom some have claimed to have been his ancestor. The arms n the will seem identical with those of the family of the Rev. eter Bulkeley with whom he was evidently in close friendship nd as The Rev. Edward Bulkeley signed the will as a witness nd not unlikely drew the will itself, as was the custom of many f the early clergy, it is probable that he used his own seal.

The will, dated 1658, now in Middlesex Co. office made his ife Hannah executrix. She and her young sons Thomas, Samuel & ohn moved to New London, Ct. where she became the third wife f Andrew Lester and had three sons by him, Timothy 1662, oseph 1664 and Benjamin Lester 1666 (half-brothers of the children of Thomas Fox of Concord) and later married a third usband. (See "Thomas Fox and his Descendants" by William F. Fox with preface by Simeon M. Fox.

David was a soldier in the Phipps Expedition to Quebec and probably never went to New London. Isaac moved there from Medford after 1695. That the son Thomas died young is conjecture. He and his sister Hannah were certainly in New London in 1662 as is shown by County Court records. He may have gone to Newport where a Thomas Fox lived or have been one of the unidentified Thomas Foxes of Boston.

As the first Thomas Fox was a brother-in-law of Moses Wheate it is very likely that his first wife was Rebecca Wheate. Possibly she was a sister of Wheate's wife Tamasin. He probably married her in England but possibly a sister Rebecca of Moses Wheate came with his family and married Thomas Fox in Concord.

It should be noted that there were two men named Thomas Fox who lived in Concord soon after its settlement.

The elder one of these, as is shown by various Court records, came from England to America in one of the vessels of Gov. Winthrop's fleet in 1630. He was one of Gov. Cradock's men and probably settled on the Mystic river near where Medford now stands and where Gov. Winthrop located the Cradock grant. Gov. Cradock never came to America but sent over a colony of servants. It seems quite certain that this was the Thomas Fox, abt 1608, who later moved to Cambridge and is known as "Thomas Fox of Cambridge" in distinction from the younger "Thomas Fox of Concord". He was made a freeman in 1638. The Cambridge Church records state that his son Jabez had been baptized at Concord. He evidently had an unidentified wife there and after removal to Cambridge married (2) Ellen, widow of Percival Green.

Each of these men named Thomas Fox, as well as Richard Fox of Glastonbury, Ct. has a distinct line of widely scattered descendants. They may possibly have been related to each other but proof of this is lacking.

PREFACE.

It is a matter of regret that all intelligent families of America do not make a permanent record of their ancestors and living relatives. Some have a few genealogical notes tucked away in places where they can rarely be found when wanted and which eventually find their way to the furnace or some unknown place. But the majority know little and care less about their family history.

A full and accurate family record placed in all of our public libraries would be of great value a hundred years hence and if such a record is not made NOW it will then be unobtainable. What a blessing it would have been if one or two centuries ago our ancestors had made and preserved a full and accurate family history! What a blessing it will be to our descendants of one or two centuries to come if we do this now!

Why can not every family select as its official genealogist some member with spare time and interest in the work and who by a study of various Court and Church records and by correspondence with distant cousins might compile and publish such a family record?

An elaborate volume with portraits and colored coats of arms may serve to impress a few readers but such a book is expensive and unnecessary. Type written or printed family sheets, bound in a loose-leaf octavo pamphlet with a flexible cover, would cost but little and being acceptable to all public libraries would serve the main purpose of perpetuating the family history.

Whoever is able to make additions or corrections to this family record is earnestly requested to send such to the compiler.

George Henry Fox, M.D.
145 East 54th St.
New York, N.Y.

NOTE I.

is convenient for reference as it shows at a glance the various lines of descent and enables one to find any adult son. The sons who died young are omitted as are also the daughters all of whom will be found in the family sheets.

NOTE II.

THE FAMILY NUMBERING

is unusual but very convenient. If ---- ---- e.g. is numbered 1 3 5 it shows that he is in the third generation and is the fifth son of the third son of the first American ancestor as far as known. Omitting one or two right hand figures gives the number of his father or grandfather.

The daughters are lettered A B C etc.

LINEAGE: Daniel Isaac Samuel Thomas
NOTES: Born in East Haddam, Ct.

1788 Manufactured Linseed oil at Falls Quequick (incorporated as Hoosic Falls in 1827) on Boston & Albany Stone Post Road.
1794 Moved there and was licensed to preach.
1797 "Elder Fox" moved to Whabir (now Chester) organized a Baptist Church there and was ordained as its first pastor.
1798 Its name was changed from Thurman to Chester Baptist Church.

Jehiel Fox was a prominent pioneer Baptist preacher in northern New York over a hundred years ago. He was born at East Haddam, Ct. and as a boy moved with his father Daniel Fox to Canaan, N.Y.

He taught school at Whiting's Pond (now Lake Queechey) where he married Jerusha, daughter of Capt. Hezekiah Baldwin, a Revolutionary officer who had also served in the old French war.

After moving from Hoosick Falls to Chester town he continued to preach and although managing a store, a saw mill and other business enterprises, organized a Baptist Church and was ordained as its minister.

Here, as well as at other churches in this section he preached until his death and the History of the Shaftsbury Assocation mentions half a dozen Baptist churches established by him.

He was buried in the old burying ground at Chester town but in 1885 all bodies were removed to the new cemetery just out of the town.

(See in "Fox Family News" July 1913 an article by his grandson, Rev. Norman Fox.)

His military service during the Revolution has entitled his descendants to membership in various patriotic societies as he served in two states, Connecticut and New York.

All four of his older brothers, Reuben, Hubbard, Allen and Ansel were Revolutionary soldiers, Ansel having been killed at the battle of Monmouth. At the age of ~~nin~~teen he joined a Militia regiment in Connecticut and marched to the relief of New London. At Canaan, N. Y. he enlisted as a private in the 17th Regt. of Albany Co. Militia in Capt. Elijah Bostwick's Co. on the pay-roll of which he is mentioned as "Hiel Fox".

(See in "Fox Family News" March 1916 an article by his great-grandson, Noel B. Fox.)
